BEST BET: Race 3 - #2 Gambler's Ghost

It is a very big drop in class for this 8 year old gelding, but this barn has excellent numbers with the allowance to claiming move, and it looks like the drop is warranted after that last race. Jockey Luis Saez will climb aboard, and this son of Ghostzapper just might be faster than what he faces here.

LONGSHOT: Race 7 - #10 Magic River

I'm taking a shot here with a first time starter on the turf for a barn who's been doing well with this move lately. Mark Casse is 4 for 11 winning for 36% and 55% in the money over the past 90 days with firsters on the turf in special weight company at Gulfstream. With Irad Ortiz taking the call and the impressive work tab, this Violence filly looks like she might be live at first asking.
