BEST BET: Race 2 - #6 Dalal

This filly is a re-claim for trainer Jorge Delgado, who is batting at about 40% this meet. Luis Saez picks up the mount for this horse, who has finished second in her last three outings. The slight stretch out to the 6 furlongs should be perfect for her, and I’m hoping second off the bench she’ll be able to get the maiden score.

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #3 Homedrill

This son of Drill had legitimate trouble last time out in the Sage of Monticelo, and was much further back than he normally is. He is a horse that has the ability to be tactical, and if he runs like he did two starts back he should be very tough in here.
